THE MANSION GAZETTE

"THE TRUTH REMAINS BURIED UNTIL IT'S POURED."

THE "DON" DECLARES BANGKOK OPEN: NEW HEADQUARTERS FOUND

SUKHUMVIT 14 – Under the guise of a 1930s American gangster inspired bar the Abandoned Mansion has officially become the primary trading hub for the city's most elusive figures. While the authorities in Chicago and New York are busy chasing shadows, the "Family" has moved East. "The air is humid, but the gin is cold," said an anonymous source spotted near the bar's hidden entrance. This "Mafia Mystery Pub" serves as the perfect smoke screen for the elite to discuss... unconventional business.

WARNING: THE BUREAU IS WATCHING!

J. EDGAR HOOVER INCREASES PRESSURE. The newly formed "G-Men" are expanding their reach. Local patrons are advised to keep their voices low and their hats tipped. If you see a man in a trench coat taking notes, it's time to order the "Mystery Cocktails" and disappear through the back exit into the Montraj Coach Sukhumvit.

"In this mansion, we don't follow the law. We follow the Don."
– Overheard at the Bar.

THE MANIFEST Clandestine Cuisine

Keep Your Head Down

And your fork ready. The bureau is watching. At Abandoned Mansion, we don't just serve plates; we serve distractions. These dishes are curated for those who need to feast while the G-men fumble in the dark.

Whether you're plotting a getaway or sealing a silent pact, these flavors are your only true witness.

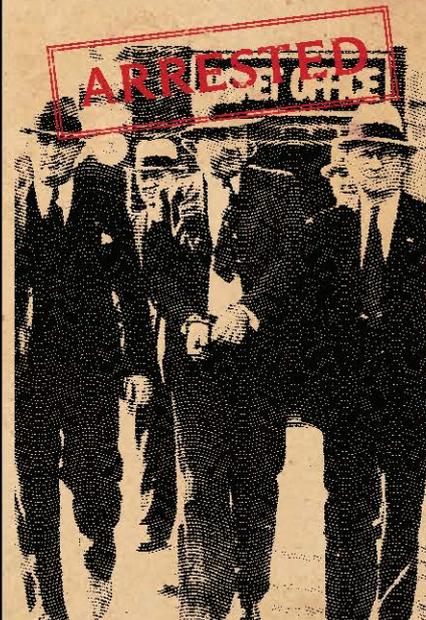

Live From The AM Stage:

"Jazz Notes"

Nightly performances by local legends echo through the high-ceilinged mansion. The air is thick with smoke from the Gangster's Cigar Room and the sound of brass that refuses to be silenced. Catch the final notes of the evening on our specialized stage above the bar.

LOCAL POLICE TO ARREST TIPSY DRIVERS

Don't let a night of "Mafia Mystery" end in a jail cell. If you've enjoyed our imported "medicinal" spirits, retreat to the Montraj Coach Sukhumvit. Our unique European train-cabin rooms offer a safe haven from the watchful eyes of the local constabulary.

THE FALL OF THE OLD GUARD

1931: Al "Scarface" Capone, The "King of Chicago" has finally been toppled. Not for his bootlegging empire, but for Tax Evasion. He has been sentenced to 11 years in federal prison.

1932: "Lucky" Luciano, A new order is rising. Luciano has organized the "Commission," turning chaotic street wars into a corporate-style syndicate. The era of the "Old World" boss is over.

1933: Machine Gun Kelly, After the high-profile kidnapping of oil tycoon Charles Urschel, Kelly was captured in Memphis. He famously shouted, "Don't shoot, G-Men!"—giving the FBI its legendary nickname.

1934: Bonnie & Clyde, The trail of the "Barrow Gang" ended in a hail of lead in Louisiana. The notorious lovers were ambushed by Texas Rangers, ending a two-year multi-state crime spree.
